The legend of this immensely popular Kishan temple can be traced back to the medieval Mahabarat. Khatu town is situated in the Sikar Dist., Rajasthan, India. Shyamji's Temple, constructed of the famous Makrana marble, lies in the heart of the town. Lord Shyamji is considered to be the God of the Kaliyug (The present age where sin and wrong doing is at its maximum.) Shyamji is synonymous with Lord Krishna and thus, is worshipped in the same form also. The devotees from all around the world visit this pilgrimage temple at the time of the 'mela' in the 'Kartik' month. Their devotion and belief simply pours from their conscious belief.
